It includes thirty different beaches; one of these, Mallipo Beach, is considered one of the three most beautiful in Korea and is over three kilometers long. The Korean government designated Taeon Haean National Park in 1978. It consists of 326.57 km² of land. There are about 130 islands in the park, and 250 species of flora thrive there. Chollipo Arboretum in Sowon-myeon, founded in 1979 by naturalized US-expatriate Min Byung Gal (Carl Ferris Miller), is a 64ha (158 acre) private botanical garden housing more than 6900 different species of plants collected from more than 60 countries. The Sinduri beach in Taeon is home to the Duung wetland, a sand dune wetland and protected area that is also designated a National Treasure of South Korea.

NIGHTS OF SEOUL

BANPO BRIDGE RAINBOW FOUNTAIN

Banpo Bridge Rainbow Fountain is installed along 570m on both sides of Banpodaegyo Bridge, with 380 nozzles spraying water from the river below out into a beautiful show of water, music, and lights. The fountain is programmed to play different shows during the day and night. During the day, the fountain shows a hundred different configurations meant to evoke waving willow branches and willow leaves. When the sun goes down, 200 lights illuminate the fountain as it sends out dancing, rainbow-colored jets of water in the air in synchronization with music.

Banpo Bridge Rainbow Fountain operates every day from April to October, four to six times a day for 20 minutes. The park also includes an outdoor stage, ecological observing site, and picnic areas.

SEOUL BAMDOKKAEBI NIGHT MARKET

@CHEONGGYECHOEN TIME SLIP MARKET EVERY SATURDAY
THE MOST UNIQUELY "KOREAN" NIGHT MARKET EVER HELD ALONG CHEONGGYECHOEN STREAM

This night market features Dokkaebi Street, where Cheonggyecheon Stream is lined with "dokkaebi lights" and an actual bamdokkaebi (night goblin) makes wishes come true. Make "love locks" with loved ones, write your hopes and dreams on pieces of paper and hang them on the Wish Tree, and take pictures with the bamdokkaebi to preserve the wonderful memories of your time at the market.

@BANPO ROMANTIC MOONLIGHT MARKET EVERY FRIDAY
A ROMANTIC MOONLIGHT MARKET WITH AN INCREDIBLE NIGHTSCAPE, FOUNTAIN, LIGHTS, AND MUSIC

This is a moonlight market that is literally held under the light of the moon. With diverse light-based events, romantic jazz and acoustic music performances, food trucks set up near the Hangang River, and a wide selection of handmade items, this market is a great way to enjoy the romantic nighttime atmosphere of Seoul, when the moonlight illuminates Dalbit Square and the beautiful Moonlight Rainbow Foundation!
